

Meet the Public Safety Police & Security Officers

Director of Public Safety, Willis Wade, joined the Chattahoochee Tech family in 2005 when our North Metro campus was North Metro Technical College. He was the Chief of Campus Police and Safety at that time. After the merger of the three fine colleges he was promoted to Director of Public Safety. Willis completed his AA degree with Clayton Junior College and his BA degree from Tift College, Mercer University, majoring in Criminal Justice. The Director began his professional career as an air traffic controller with the United States Navy. He left the Navy after 8 ½ years and began a law enforcement career where he stayed until reentering the military with the Army as a Recruiter and Nuclear Biological and Chemical Warfare Specialist in 1984 retiring in 1996. After retirement Willis reentered the law enforcement field where he served as Assistant Chief with the City of Euharlee and as a School Resource Officer with Carroll County Schools where he was awarded Staff Member of the Year. The Director takes a great deal of pride in working with such an outstanding group of officers here at CTC, beginning with Chief Streefkerk and to all the officers serving on our campuses.

Officer Perry Arnold has worked in public safety since 1975. He started his career as a firefighter/EMT and attended Paramedic school. He later moved to the law enforcement side of public safety. Perry's experience is wide ranging involving but not limited to airplane crashes, murder investigation, suicide, auto accidents and drug investigations. These are only a few of the areas where Officer Arnold has experience. Like his experience his training is also diverse including but not limited to, basic, intermediate and advance training in PIO, Public Information Officer, SWAT, Gangs, Criminal Procedures and Interviews and Interrogations. Perry holds memberships in GSIN (Georgia State Intelligence Network) and Georgia Gang Network. Officer Arnold brings a lot to the department and his service to CTC, we're proud to have him as a member of the team.

Meet the Public Safety Police & Security Officers

Officer Horace Ayers has work as a part time campus police officer with Chattahoochee Tech for well over twenty years, doing a great job of taking care of our students, faculty and staff. While serving at CTC on a part time basis he also served as a full time officer with the Cobb County Police Department from which he retired. Horace holds a BA degree from the University of Georgia.
