FERPA: The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 establish the rights of students with regard to educational records. The act makes provision for inspection, review and amendment of educational records by the students and requires, in most instances, prior consent from the student for disclosure of such records to third parties. The consent must be in writing, signed and dated by the student and must specify records to be released, reason for release, and the names of the parties to whom such records shall be released. The act applies to all persons formerly and currently enrolled at an educational institution. Access to educational records does not give permission to make changes to the student's record.

In signing this waiver, I, _____, give access to all of my academic records at Chattahoochee Technical College (to include account current and past grades) to the individual (s) listed below. (Individual must know student's SS Number and date of birth BEFORE the information can be released).
