

AUDIO RECORDING AGREEMENT

Student: _____ ID#: _____

Students with disabilities who have difficulty taking or reading their own notes have the right to electronically record class lectures and discussions. (84.44 Section of 504 in the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 P.L. 93-112, amended P.L. 93-516). Lectures recorded for this purpose are for study purposes only. Recordings may not be used in any way against a faculty member, other lecturers, students whose classroom comments are recorded as part of the class activity or any other person whose voice may be heard on the recording. Information contained in the recorded lecture is protected under federal copyright laws and may not be published or quoted without the express written consent of the lecturer and without giving proper identity and credit to the lecturer.

I have read and understand the above statement concerning recorded lectures and discussions. I will abide by the stated policy with regards to any lectures I record while enrolled at Chattahoochee Technical College.
