

International Students*

Students designated as “Foreign” by the college for fee assessment purposes

Chattahoochee Technical College has partnered with Flywire by peerTransfer, a leading provider of higher education payment solutions, to connect our college with consumers and students. Flywire helps facilitate payments originating from outside of the United States and eliminates the need for students or prospective students to calculate currency rate differences and fluctuations while also reducing fees. Our hope is that you will find Flywire makes the payment process more organized and streamlined for you. Click HERE to learn more.
