WELCOME TO CHATTANOOGA TECHNICAL COLLEGE

“A journey of a thousand miles must begin with a single step.”
---Lao Tzu

We invite all students to get involved and become a part of the CTC community. Your college experience is not limited to the classroom. You are encouraged to participate in other activities that will make your educational journey both inspiring and fulfilling. The College has designed this student guidebook to assist you in your overall student knowledge and development.

Make the Most of Your CTC Experience: The beginning of the school year is an ideal time to set your priorities for a successful educational journey and college completion. Explore new ways to learn outside of the classroom, ask questions, get involved, and become a self-advocate. Hopefully, you will use this time not only to make friends but connect with faculty and staff as well. You are encouraged to stay connected to the College through student email, Facebook, social media, and campus activities.

Cultivate an Environment of Diversity: As a student, you have the opportunity to expand your understanding of various cultures and diverse backgrounds and walks of life. Interact with people from all upbringings. Participate in the International Club to learn of other cultures and other countries. Get involved in a student organization such as the Student Government Association, which will challenge you to develop interpersonal, diplomacy and leadership skills. Consider participating in Service Learning activities to make you a well-rounded individual.

Strive for Honesty: Demonstrate respect toward yourself, peers, faculty, and staff. Be honest and responsible in your academic work. Strive to learn on a deeper level and incorporate your skills within all aspects of your education. In this way you will ensure the quality of your education and the respect of Chattahoochee Technical College.

Need to Know College Terminology

These are some common collegiate terms:

Catalog: College catalogs provide all types of information parents and students need to know about a school. It lists, for example, the college’s history and philosophy, policies and procedures, its accreditation status, courses of study, degrees and certificates offered, physical facilities, admission and enrollment procedures, financial aid, student life activities, etc.

Certificate: (TCC) Technical Certificate of Credit; 9 to 39 credit hours and one to three-semester enrollment to completion. Some programs have “embedded certificates” that may be earned while completing a diploma or degree.

Corequisite: Courses that must be taken at the same time during the semester.

Credit hour: The unit of measuring educational credit, usually based on the number of classroom hours per week throughout a semester.

Degree (AAS): Associate of Applied Science; 60 to 73 credit hours, full time, two years to completion.

Diploma: 40 to 59 credit hours, full time, a year and one half to completion.

Drop/Add Period: The first three days of a semester where courses can be dropped or added to a student’s schedule.

Elective Courses: Alternative or optional classes a student takes within a program of study.

FAFSA: Free Application for Federal Student Aid

Fees: Fees are additional charges not included in the tuition. Fees may be charged to cover the cost of materials and equipment needed in certain courses, and they may be assessed for student events, programs, and publications.

FERPA: Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act

Financial Aid: Aid is made available from grants, scholarships, and part-time employment from federal, state, institutional, and private sources. Awards from these programs may be combined in an "award package" to meet the costs of attendance. The types and amounts of aid awarded are determined by financial need, available funds, student classification, academic performance, and, sometimes, the timeliness of application. Hope is “financial aid.”

Full time status: 12 or more credit hours.

GPA: Grade Point Average. Students have a term GPA and a cumulative GPA.
Hardship Withdrawal: A student can petition the Records Department for a withdrawal (W) after the mid-term deadline with documents detailing the student’s inability to finish the semester.

Hybrid Class: A class that meets on campus part of the time but also has an online component.

Major: A student’s chosen program of study.

Matriculation: To be enrolled at a college.

No Show: A student who is registered for a class but fails to complete a specific assignment the first week of class.

Occupational Course: A class that is directly related to the field of study.

On-ground Class: A class that meets at a specified time, day, and campus.

Online Class: The class is conducted completely through the internet using Blackboard or other learning platform. The student will attend at least one mandatory proctored test, usually the mid-term or final, at a specified campus.

Prerequisite: A class or requirement that must be met before advancing to a specific class.

Records: The office of records of the college is responsible for the maintenance of all academic records and may include such duties as maintenance of class enrollments, providing statistical information on student enrollment, and student eligibility for honor rolls, administering probation and retention policies and verification of the completion of degree requirements for graduation.

Registration: The process of officially enrolling in a class or classes.

SAP: Satisfactory Academic Progress

Student Accounts Office (bursar’s office, cashiers’ office): The Student Accounts Office is responsible for the collection of monies due the college.

Syllabus: An outline of the course and course requirements to include class policy and procedure.

TeleLearn Class: A class that meets at a specified time and day in a physical classroom on a campus, in a live virtual classroom from any computer, or a combination of the two.

Transcript: An official record of all academic work attempted by a student.

Transfer of Credits: Some students attend more than one institution during their college career. When they move or transfer from one college to another, they may also transfer accumulated credit hours from the former institution to the new one. The new institution determines which courses will apply toward graduation requirements.
Tuition: Tuition is the amount paid for each credit hour of enrollment. Tuition does not include the cost of books, fees, etc. Tuition charges vary from college to college and are dependent on such factors as whether or not the college has classified a student as “in-state” or “out-of-state.”

Web Enhanced Class: A class that meets at a specified time, day, and campus with an online component.

WIOA: Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act

Withdrawal: Students may withdraw from courses during a semester, but there are established procedures for doing so. The college catalog specifies the procedures.

Preventing theft on campus

- Keep cash, checks, credit cards, and books with you at all times; do not leave them in an open or unattended area.
- Write your name and student ID, in pen, inside your books or belongings if you can.
- Preventing theft is everyone’s responsibility.

Tips for Safety

- Be alert to your surroundings and the people around you.
- Walk confidently and with a steady pace. A person who intends to harm often looks for someone who appears vulnerable.
- Keep your car in good working order and the gas tank at least half full.
- Park in well-lit areas. Call campus police for an escort if you are unsure about walking to your car alone.
- Have your car keys in your hand and check the back seat areas before entering your car. Notice anything unusual as you approach the car. If you see anything suspicious, return to the building and call campus police. Never remote your car open when approaching your car.

- Lock your car upon entry.
- If you think you are being followed, drive to a public place or to an open police or fire station.
- Program the Campus Police Dispatch number into your cell phone.

Safety while Walking

- Do not hitchhike or accept rides from someone you do not know.
- If a driver stops to ask directions, avoid getting near the car. Never let someone force you into a car – run, yell, attract attention.
- If you are harassed by the occupants of a car, turn and walk in the other direction. Find a location nearby populated by other people.
- Avoid walking alone at night and avoid doorways, bushes, and alleys.

Student ID & parking passes

Visit the Department of Public Safety on your campus

- Get a student ID and parking pass at any campus police office; if an officer is not there, please call dispatch at 770.529.2311 and an officer will meet you.
- Students may be asked to show their student ID cards to obtain CTC services and in some instances receive student discounts at local venues (e.g. movies, restaurants, etc.).
- Parking passes are a way for CTC security to maintain the current status and safety of your car. If there is an accident or a break-in to your vehicle, the identification number on your parking pass will aid campus police in quickly obtaining your contact info so that you can be informed as soon as possible.

Office of Student Involvement

“Studies show the more students are engaged or involved in campus life activities, the more likely they are to graduate!”

–Jalynn Roberts, Research in Higher Education Journal

The Office of Student Involvement provides opportunities for students to become active members of their college community and meet other students with similar interests. The OSI strives to enhance students’ educational experiences outside of the classroom by offering many entertaining and educational events such as the following:

- Multicultural Events
- Social Activities
- Family Friendly Programming
- Leadership Programs
- Diversity Programs
Registered Student Organizations (RSOs)

Students are encouraged to enrich their educational and leadership skills through involvement in a Registered Student Organization (RSO) at the college. Students involved in an RSO will find greater connectivity with the college, their peers, and their advisors, and are more likely to remain in college through graduation or completion of education and professional goals. For more information on participating in activities or RSOs, go to the Office of Student Involvement.

E.A.G.L.E. Link is a platform to help engage students in their academic and social lives while attending Chattahoochee Technical College. E.A.G.L.E. Link will be used by Chattahoochee Tech RSOs and various departments to post upcoming events and important information for students to access quickly, including all on campus student activities as well as important department information. E.A.G.L.E. Link promotes a better and more engaging relationship between faculty and staff and the student by creating a one stop shop platform that students can use for news on events, to check their Eagle Bucks, and find departmental information.

Special Populations Services

- The Textbook Lending Program: Textbooks are lent to students who face financial challenges. The Textbook Lending Program is designed to assist qualified students in obtaining some of the required textbooks that due to cost may not otherwise be affordable to them. Available textbooks are lent to students for one semester on a “first come, first served” basis each term. Students will have to apply for books each semester through an application process. Assistance with the purchase of eBook codes is not a part of the Textbook Lending Program.

- Institutional and External Resources: Lists and access to resources provided by Chattahoochee Tech, city and county agencies, state agencies and businesses to assist with factors that could prevent students from program completion.

These resources can include childcare, transportation, housing, and others. To learn more, please visit the Office of Student Resources.

The Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act

The Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) was signed into law on July 22, 2014. WIOA is designed to help job seekers access employment, education, training, and support services to succeed in the labor market and to match employers with the skilled workers they need to compete in the global economy. WIOA at Chattahoochee Technical College serves three workforce regions. Your region is determined by the county you reside in or the county of the employer who laid you off. The campus you attend, or where your program of study is located, does not determine which region you can receive services from.

Please reach out to your region’s WIOA coordinator to discuss your eligibility. Call or just drop by:

Student Accounts Office

Tuition and Fees

Please refer to ChattahoocheeTech.edu for the most recent and up to date information on tuition and fees. Tuition is standard across all programs at the college. We charge the same rate per credit hours. A student’s residency classification affects the rate he or she is charged.

Payment and Financial Aid Deadlines

Payment and financial aid deadlines are established for each registration period and are adhered to strictly. Payment and/or financial aid must be in place to cover a student’s account balance. Financial obligations that are not met by the established payment and financial aid deadlines will result in the student’s classes being dropped. Additionally, students who are dropped for non-payment may be subject to a registration hold being placed on the account—delaying re-registration.

The College’s official payment deadlines, per semester, are published in the college’s official academic calendar and on the Student Accounts Office page.
Refunds

When a student's aid exceeds the total cost of their tuition and fees and any books that were purchased with the book credit in the bookstore, those students receive a financial aid refund. Refunds are processed through BankMobile approximately four to five weeks from the first day of class. You must set up your refund preference on bankmobilevibe.com. You will choose how you would like to receive any refunds in one of three ways: electronic transfer to an existing bank account, direct deposit into a BankMobile Vibe account with a debit card, or paper check.

Any correspondence regarding your financial aid will always be sent to your student email. Please log on and check it often for current updates.

Nelnet Payment Plans

Nelnet Payment Plans are designed for students who wish to spread their tuition and fees payments over a specified period of time. Students who enroll in the plan will pay a minimal enrollment fee. Nelnet Payment Plans are set up for the full amount of tuition and fees owed. You can access Payment Plans through BannerWeb.
CTC Financial Aid Info for Students

Applying for Financial Aid

Please visit Financial Aid to get information for applying for financial aid. (Click on Financial Services.)

Awarding Process

You will be mailed an award letter when your application is complete and reviewed. You can also check your award(s) by logging on to your account on BannerWeb and selecting award, award by aid year and current year.

Disbursement Process

Any financial aid that has been awarded to you will authorize to disburse prior to the payment deadlines. If you have enough authorized aid to pay your balance, your schedule will be saved. If you do not have enough aid, you must pay the difference before the payment deadline or your schedule will be purged. Approximately 14 days into the semester, your aid will disburse and pay toward any balance you may have showing in BannerWeb.

Bookstore Credit

Students may use up to $600 in Federal Pell Grant (after tuition/fees are paid) for purchases of items in the bookstores across all campuses and online. Funds will be in the bookstore by the beginning the first day of classes for students who have registered during the early registration period and whose financial aid file is complete. The final day to use financial aid in the bookstore will be posted in the bookstore and on the website. Charging against your aid is usually allowed for the first two weeks of the semester.

Financial Aid FAQs

Is there a limit on the number of hours for which HOPE will pay?

Yes, you can receive the HOPE Grant for 63 semester paid hours for a technical certificate or diploma programs. You can receive the HOPE Scholarship for 127 semester hours of combined HOPE Grant and HOPE Scholarship.

What is the difference between HOPE Grant and HOPE Scholarship?

The HOPE Grant is for eligible students seeking a diploma or certificate. The HOPE Scholarship is for eligible students seeking a degree program.
Why is my certificate program not Pell-eligible?

To be Pell eligible, a program must be at least one year long or require a certain number of clock hours. Because of the length of some CTC certificate programs, many certificates are not eligible for Pell. Generally, certificate programs are NOT Pell-eligible because they do not take more than one year to complete.

Can I use my financial aid in the bookstore for textbook purchases?

Yes, if all your tuition and fees have been paid, and you’re eligible for more aid than your total cost, you can use a portion of your award towards purchases in the bookstore. Purchases using aid are limited to $600. Not all students are eligible for the full $600 as eligibility is determined on a case-by-case basis. Financial aid in the bookstore is available by the first day of the semester.

Are there any limits or conditions on my financial aid?

To keep all financial aid awards, students must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress. Satisfactory Academic Progress is a set of federal, state, and institutional guidelines for students receiving financial assistance in which students must do the following:

- Earn a minimum 2.0 GPA each term and a minimum 2.0 GPA overall/cumulative to maintain all aid. HOPE scholarship requires at least a 3.0 GPA.

- Complete 67% or more of your credit hours with an A, B or C grade. Withdrawals that occur after Drop/Add (first three days of the semester) negatively affect SAP although your GPA may not be affected.

- Complete your program/major within a 150% of the number credit hours required per the catalog. For example, if your major is 60 credits long, financial aid will allow you to attempt 90 credit hours. 60 x 1.5 = 90. If you reach/exceed 90 attempted hours (with or without financial aid), you will lose your Good Standing for financial aid purposes.

- Courses paid by Pell funds can be repeated only once after you have earned a passing grade in that course. For example, if you earned a C in BIOL 1111 and are registering again to attempt to earn an A, financial aid can be used for that second attempt.

How many credits do I need to be considered a full-time student?

For financial aid and enrollment verification purpose, 12 credits or more constitute full-time. Tuition/fees are assessed up to 15 credit hours per term.

Do I have to be a full-time student in order to get financial aid?

No. Financial aid at the college requires full-time enrollment. HOPE pays based on the number of credit hours registered. Pell Grant is awarded based on full-time enrollments, but it’s prorated/adjusted for students who are not full-time. Some students qualify for so little Pell Grants that they are required to attend full-time to receive any Pell, but those are specific cases—not a rule for all Pell students.

What happens to my financial aid status if I withdraw from school or drop a class?
Students who withdraw from school while on financial aid may have their awards reduced. Depending upon when you withdraw from school, your awards can be reduced, and you may be required to repay a specified percentage of any aid you have received in the term in which you are withdrawing. Check with the Office of Financial Aid before withdrawing from school to see if withdrawing could affect your awards.

How will dropping a class affect my financial aid?
If the course is dropped within the drop/add period (usually the first three days of the semester), it does not affect your financial aid. Courses dropped during Drop/Add go away as if they never happened—along with tuition/fees for those courses and financial aid for those courses. Courses dropped on or after the fourth day are considered a withdrawal and will affect your SAP (Satisfactory Academic Progress) and possibly your balance due. You are encouraged to contact the Financial Aid Office before you drop or withdrawal for your classes so you can be advised on how the drop/withdrawal will affect your financial aid standing, money you may owe to the college, etc.

I am on financial aid suspension. Is there any way I can get my financial aid back?
Yes, you have the opportunity to appeal. You must fill out the SAP Appeal form and submit it to the financial aid office for review by the posted deadline. SAP appeal forms can be found on the financial aid website located under financial aid forms. Appeals are reviewed twice per semester, and you will be notified of the decision of the appeal committee via your CTC email.

What is SAP and how is my financial aid affected by it?
In order for students to retain financial aid, they must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress or SAP (see page 33 for SAP guidelines). If students do not maintain SAP, their aid may be suspended. However, if extenuating circumstances have made it difficult to keep financial aid, students have the option to appeal. In the appeal, a student would have the opportunity to explain his or her extenuating circumstances, supply supporting documentation, etc.

A committee reviews all appeals, and the committee’s decision is final. Your appeal should be thorough and detailed.

I am thinking about withdrawing from a class. Will this affect my aid?
Yes. You will not be required to pay back HOPE; however, if you completely withdraw from classes, you may be subject to paying back your Pell award. Even if you are not required to pay money back, your withdrawal will still count as an attempt. You must successfully complete at least 67 percent of the classes you attempt in order to remain in good financial aid standing, regardless of your GPA.

Why have I just been put on suspension if I have an outstanding GPA?

Students are expected to complete their program of study within a 150 percent timeframe. For example, if a student’s program of study consists of 50 total hours to graduate, the student is expected to finish that program within 75 attempted hours (50 x 150% = 75). This additional time/credit allows for times when the student may have to drop a course or repeat a course.

What is SEOG?

SEOG is the Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant. A limited amount of SEOG is appropriated from the federal government every year to be awarded to the students with the highest financial need. The only required application is the FAFSA, and the financial aid office awards all students who are eligible until funding is depleted. Our allocation is never enough to award all students who are eligible.

How do I apply for scholarships?

Each scholarship has different criteria. Information about scholarships awarded by the Chattahoochee Tech Foundation is available online. If you are still in high school, it is important to work with your high school counselor for information on scholarships for students entering college.

What is Federal Work-Study (FWS) and how do I apply?

The Federal Work-Study program provides part-time jobs to eligible financial aid students. FWS gives them the opportunity to earn money like a part-time job as well as gain valuable work experience. Work-study jobs are on campus and can offer more flexibility than a traditional part-time job in that your class schedule is considered when setting up your work hours. Students must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Available work study positions are listed at the CTC Job Center.

Registration Cycles

Fall Semester begins in the later part of August. Check the calendar!

- You may register for Fall Semester courses beginning in late April until final registration day the week prior to classes beginning.
- Consult the calendar to make sure that you complete payment for tuition and fees by the deadline.
- Once classes begin, you may make changes to your schedule, without penalty, the first three days of the semester.

In early October, you need to consult DegreeWorks via BannerWeb and make plans to meet with your academic or faculty advisor. Registration for the spring semester will open late October to early November. Your advisor can help you plan upcoming courses. It is helpful if you are familiar with your program so you can be a part of the planning process.

At the end of the ninth week, the opportunity to withdraw from a class or classes will end. You must decide how a ‘W’ may affect your financial aid eligibility, completion rate, and educational goals.

Finals will occur the first week of December. Be sure to register for spring. Check your final grades mid-December!

TIP: Be aware of the document deadlines each semester. Check the calendar. Documents such as readmit and transient requests, change of program, financial aid documents, and petitions to graduate must be received.

TIP: Re-apply for financial aid by applying to FAFSA around tax time. Once you (or your parents) complete their taxes, you can reapply for aid for fall.

Spring Semester begins in early to mid-January. Check the calendar!

- You may register for spring courses from late October-early November to final registration just before classes begin.
- Consult the calendar to make sure that you complete payment for tuition and fees by the deadline.
- Once classes begin, you may make changes to your schedule, without penalty, the first three days of the semester.
- In mid-March, schedule an appointment with your academic or faculty advisor to plan for summer courses. Summer semester is a shortened semester and only lasts 10 weeks. Consult DegreeWorks for potential courses you may be eligible to take.

At the end of the ninth week, around the third week of March, the opportunity to withdraw from a class or classes will end. Consult an advisor to determine if withdrawing or sticking with a class is your best option.

Finals will occur the first week of May. Be sure to register for summer semester. Check your grades mid-May.

If you are not enrolling for summer semester:

Potential Health Risks

Concerning potential health risks, students should be aware that according to the National Institute of Drug (NIDA), the National Institute of Health (NIH), and other sources, drug and alcohol use might have a wide range of short- and long-term, direct and indirect effects. Even after one use, short-term effects can cause alterations in appetite, the ability to sleep, slower or faster heart rate, dizziness, changes in blood pressure, behavior and mood. Extended use over time or even an isolated incident of overindulgence can cause greater health risks to include heart attack, stroke, seizures, disorders of internal organs, and short-term psychosis. In other cases, extreme use of drugs or alcohol can lead to unintentional overdose and possible death. Long-term use of drug and alcohol may include heart and/or lung disease, certain cancers, liver disease, mental disorders, hepatitis and other health concerns to include an increased chance of dependency or addiction. In addition, use of drugs and alcohol can impair good decision-making skills and consent, which could lead to the contraction of AIDS, HIV or sexually transmitted diseases due to risk-taking behaviors. The risk for impulsivity, trauma, violence, injury, and risky behaviors may be enhanced due to impaired judgment. In addition, the use of drugs and alcohol may contribute to short- and long-term changes in brain activity that affects mood, impulsivity, memory, stress, and the ability to learn new material and acquire new skills. This may adversely affect a student’s educational success and career opportunities. Even when drug and alcohol use is eliminated or reduced, those changes may become permanent. The use of drugs and alcohol may adversely affect babies born to women who use drugs and alcohol while pregnant or breastfeeding.
